FULL DETAILS

OVERVIEW

Designed for entertaining and coastal cruising, the Carver 360 Sport Sedan (called the Carver 36 Sedan in 2005-06) combines the interior space of a small motoryacht with the versatility that comes with a cockpit and extended swim platform. Hull construction is solid fiberglass, and her traditional modified-V hull provides a comfortable open-water ride. Below, the spacious full-beam salon of the 360 Sport Sedan is made possible by elevating the side decks above the lower salon windows. The main cabin is arranged with a raised dinette/lounge forward with Ultra leather seating. Forward, the guest stateroom features convertible twin berths, and the bow stateroom has a queen-sized island berth and private access to the head with separate glass shower stall. The hardwood floor in the galley area complements the granite-like counters and cherrywood cabinets. Getting around the Sport Sedan is easy—in each forward corner of the cockpit a five-step stairway leads to the side decks while an additional staircase provides access to the expansive bridge. Topside, the helm is on the centerline flanked by companion seats. Volvo 375hp gas inboards cruise the Carver 360 Sport Sedan 16-18 knots (low 20s top).
